

Freedom from Outside Interference

Where a religious right can be asserted to override state law for religious reasons, the Church of Reality asserts the right to choose abortion as a fundamental practice of our religion. We reject the notion that society has the right to force women to bear children against their will. The choice of the individual to reproduce or not is a recognized religious right in the Church of Reality.