

Help us Spread the Sacred Message

The {In:Sacred Message} of the Church of Reality is the word reality. One of the best ways to help promote reality is to help us get more traffic on this web site. The more traffic we get, the more people become aware that the Church of Reality exists. We get this traffic, in part, by people like you linking to our web pages, leaving comments in blogs with links, discussing the Church of Reality on discussion sites, and even - if you want - buying ad space on high traffic sites that attract people who are interested in reality.

The name itself, Church of Reality, is a very powerful message. If this religion was nothing more than a name and a vague concept that it is a religion based on believing in everything that is real, that alone would be powerful. Once people get to know that there is a "Church of Reality" out there, then it challenges other religions on the basis of what is real. How does your religion compare to reality? It gets people to think about reality and every time someone thinks about reality, the world gets a little smarter. And that's one of the things we are here to do, make the world a smarter place to live in. So that's what we need to accomplish. We need to get the word out so that every person on the planet is at least aware that the Church of Reality exists and begins to wonder what a religion would be like that is based on believing in everything that is real.
