

Dogmatist

A Dogmatist is a person who is stuck in the past relying on ancient knowledge that one is supposed to accept as true without question. Dogmatists are the opposite of {In:Futurist} who focus on where we are going rather than where we have been. Dogmatists practice Dogmatism which is a Dogmatic world view. Many Dogmatists are also {In:Extinctionists} who expect the future destruction of the world. We in the Church of Reality distinguish ourselves from other religions by embracing Futurism and rejecting Dogmatism.
